Library Trends

Index to Volume 11

PREPARED BY FREDERIC E. MANSFIELD, JR.

A

"Academic budgets and their administration—1962," Richards, 415-426.
Accounting, see Budgets and accounting.
Acquisition procedures, 391-392.
"The Administrator and the board," Franklin, 55-66.
Alston, Edwin F. "Bibliotherapy and psychotherapy," 159-176.
"American Association of Law Libraries," Ellenberger, 325-338.
American Standards Association—Sectional Committees Z39 and Z85, 438, 440-441.
"Application of mechanical and electronic devices to legal literature," Mersky, 296-305.
Aspnes, Grieg. "Committee control of the industrial research library," 74-81.
"Assistance from state law libraries," Poe, 315-324.
Association libraries, see Corporation and association libraries.
Astor Library, New York, 10-11.
Automation and mechanization, 341-342, 381-382.

B

Beatty, William K. "Historical review of bibliotherapy," 106-117.
Bibliotherapists: Personal qualifications, 123-125, 129-132, 137, 142; Training, 125, 130-134, 137, 142-143.
Bibliotherapy: definition, 98-99, 101, 127, 128, 141-142, 203-204, 217-227; history, 106-114; librarian as bibliotherapist, 122-125, 130-131, 137, 142, 144, 184-197; librarian's relation with physicians and psychologists, 132, 147, 173-174, 177, 182, 185, 186-188; psychological basis, 118-122, 124-125, 131, 147, 159-174, 177-182; records of results, 107, 108, 194-198; research on, 102-103, 110-112, 140-141, 143-144; survey of literature, 106-114, 120-121, 136-144.
See also subjects, e.g., Mental illness and disorders, Bibliotherapy.
"Bibliotherapy: its use in nursing therapy," Mereness, 199-206.
"Bibliotherapy: modern concepts in general hospitals and other institutions," Moody, 147-158.
"Bibliotherapy: projects and studies with the mentally ill patient," Junier, 136-146.
"Bibliotherapy and psychotherapy," Alston, 159-176.
"Bibliotherapy and reading guidance: a tentative approach to theory," Jackson, 118-126.
"Bibliotherapy and the clinical psychologist," Pearson, 177-183.
"Bibliotherapy program: requirements for training," Kinney, 127-135.
Binding standards and specifications, 438-439, 442-443.
Blindness, bibliotherapy, 128.
Boards of trustees, see Library boards, Library trustees.
Book selection, in bibliotherapy, 77-79, 123, 137-138.
Borgeson, Earl C. "Classification of legal materials," 290-295.
Boston Public Library, 9-10.

"Budgeting and budget control in public libraries," Price, 402-414.
Budgets and accounting: public libraries, 41, 402-412; university and college libraries, 415-425; allocations, 421, 422-423; financial reports, 21, 411; "Performance budgeting," 403-408, 411, 418.

C

Carpenter v. St. Louis, 318 Mo. 870, 22.
Cataloging, legal literature, 267, 280-288.
Cataloging and classification, in university and college libraries, 380-381.
Children, handicapped and hospitalized, bibliotherapy, 128, 154-155.
Circulation services, in university and college libraries, 380.
City manager government, effect upon library boards, 12, 23, 28, 33-34.
Classification, legal literature, 267, 290-294.
"Classification of legal materials," Borgeson, 290-295.
Cohen, Morris L. "Education for law librarianship," 306-314.
Commission form of municipal government, effect upon library boards, 12, 23, 34-35.
"Committee control of the industrial research library," Aspnes, 74-81.
Cooperation, interlibrary, 68-69.
Corporation and association libraries, legal basis, 7-8, 23-24.
"Cost of library materials," Welch, 384-394.
Cost of material indexes, Library, 384-388.
"The costs of public library service," Drennan, 362-375.
County libraries, legal basis, 25-26, 86-90.

D

Davies, Bernita J. Introduction to "Current Trends in Law Libraries," 233-236.
Drennan, Henry T. "The costs of public library service," 362-375.

E

"Education for law librarianship," Cohen, 306-314.
Eggen, J. Archer. Introduction to "Library Boards," 3-4.
Elderly, bibliotherapy, 128, 152-154.
Ellenberger, J. S. "The American Association of Law Libraries," 325-338.
Endowments and gifts, 347, 353-356, 360, 392.
"Error of central tendency," 180.
Expenditures, public library: division between personnel and materials, 369-370; per capita expenditure, 363-364, 368-370, 372; percentage of governmental budget, 363-364, 371, 373; role of government agencies, 412; standards, 372-374; statistics and comparisons, 362-375.
Expenditures, university and college libraries: division between personnel and materials, 378-379, 384; percentage of institutional budget, 377-378, 384; statistics and comparisons, 376-382.

F

Federal aid to libraries, 347-348, 350-351, 356-358, 366; overhead allowances on contracts, 357-358.
"Financial support of public libraries," Wight, 343-352.
Fires and fire protection in libraries, 428-433.
"Foreign law in American law libraries," Stern, 259-270.
Foreign library laws (other than United Kingdom), 13-15.
Foundations, philanthropic; grants to college and university libraries, 355-356.
Franklin, Robert D. "The administrator and the board," 55-66.
Friends of the library groups, 27, 35, 37-38, 42, 64, 354.
See also Library boards, advisory.

G

Gifts to libraries, see Endowments and gifts.
Government publications, 247-248, 266-267.

H

"Halo effect," in psychology, 181.
Hannigan, Margaret C. "Librarian in bibliotherapy: pharmacist or bibliotherapist?" 184-198.

Harrison, J. Clement. "The library committee in the United Kingdom," 82-93.
Heckel, John W. "Service to readers," 271-279.
"Historical background," Schochet, 5-18.
"Historical review of bibliotherapy," Beatty, 106-117.
Hospitals (General), bibliotherapy in, 148-149, 200-202.
Huntting, Inez. "Role of the occupational therapist as related to bibliotherapy," 207-216.

I

Illinois library laws, 12, 19, 23.
Illinois. University — Undergraduate Division, Chicago—Library, 381.
Index to legal periodicals, 249, 254, 325-328, 332.
Industrial research libraries, library committees, 74-81.
Information storage and retrieval systems, in law libraries, 296-304.
Insurance, library, 427-428, 433-435.
Interlibrary cooperation, see Cooperation, Interlibrary.
Interlibrary loans, 277-278.

J

Jackson, Evalene P. "Bibliotherapy and reading guidance: a tentative approach to theory," 118-126.
Jacobstein, J. Myron. "Law library administration," 237-243.
Junier, Artemisia. "Bibliotherapy; projects and studies with the mentally ill patient," 136-146.
Juvenile delinquency, bibliotherapy, 128.

K

Kaser, David. "Outside funding of academic libraries," 353-361.
Kenyon, Carleton W. "Law cataloging," 280-289.
Kinney, Margaret M. "The bibliotherapy program: requirements for training," 127-135.

L

Ladenson, Alex. "The legal basis of library boards," 19-27.
Law — Bibliographies, 248-249, 251-256, 269, 278.
"Law cataloging," Kenyon, 280-289.
Law firm libraries, 241-242, 274-275.
Law librarians: training, 306-314; university status, 241.
Law libraries: administration, 237-242; readers' services, see Readers' services in law libraries.
See also Law firm libraries, Law school libraries, State law libraries.
"Law library administration," Jacobstein, 237-243.
Law library journal, 325-329, 331-332.
Law periodicals, 248-249.
Law school libraries, 238-241; relation with university libraries, 238-239.
"The Legal basis of library boards," Ladenson, 19-27.
Legal basis of library boards: general state statutes, 8, 12, 19-21, 28-30; special state statutes, 9, 11-12, 22, 24; municipal charters and ordinances, 21-23; conflict of laws, 21-23; non-library legislation, 22-23; in United Kingdom, 82-90; in other foreign countries, 13-15.
See also types of libraries.
Legal literature: role of nonlegal material, 244-246; selection and acquisition, 244-256, 259-269, 318.
"Legal literature," Marke, 244-258.
Lenox Library, New York, 10-11.
"Librarian in bibliotherapy: pharmacist or bibliotherapist?" Hannigan, 184-198.
Librarians: relation with library boards, 16, 36, 37, 44, 45-46, 55-66, 69-70; relations with individual trustees, 49-52, 57-99.
Libraries, history, 5-17, 343.
Library associations, and library trustees, 50-51, 65-66, 70-72.
"Library board forms," Ubel, 28-38.
Library boards, advisory, 27, 34-35. See also Friends of the library groups.
Library boards: history and origin, 3-17, 39, 83-84; legal basis, see Legal basis of library boards; organization and bylaws, 20; powers and responsibilities, 6, 15-17, 20-21, 32-33, 39-53, 75-80, 407; self-perpetuating, 24, 29; size, 20, 28-30; in United Kingdom, 82-92.

Library furniture, standards and specifications, 443.
Library schools, curricula, 130-134.
"The Library committee in the United Kingdom," Harrison, 82-93.
Library legislation, 19-27, 343; conflict of laws, 21-23.
See also Legal basis of library boards; names of states; United Kingdom; and Foreign library laws.
"Library personnel costs," Rather, 395-401.
Library Technology Project, 428, 435, 438, 439, 443.
Library trustees: age, 32; appointing authority, 12, 20, 28-29, 84-87, 89-90; educational level, 31; election of, 6, 20, 28-29; orientation, 50-51, 65-66; personal qualifications and legal requirements, 20, 28, 30-32, 47-50; personal responsibilities, 39-53; sex of, 31; term of office, 20, 29-30, 52-53; vocational and professional background, 7, 10, 31-32.
Local governments, relation with library boards, 10, 23-27, 29-30, 32-38, 41, 43-44, 84-90.
Loose-leaf services, 247, 272-273.

M

Marke, Julius J. "Legal literature," 244-258.
Massachusetts library laws, 10, 19, 343.
Mental health, 161.
Mental illness and disorders, 160-161; bibliotherapy, 159-174, 177-182, 202-205.
Mentally retarded, bibliotherapy, 149-150.
Mereness, Dorothy. "Bibliotherapy: its use in nursing therapy," 199-206.
Mersky, Roy M. "Application of mechanical and electronic devices to legal literature," 296-305.
Microreproductions, 249-251, 277.
Missouri. University—Library, 381.
Mixer, Charles M. "New developments in insurance and protection of library contents," 427-435.
Moody, Mildred T. "Bibliotherapy: modern concepts in general hospitals and other institutions," 147-158.
Motion pictures, in psychotherapy, 167-168.
Municipal libraries, legal basis, 8, 9, 11-12, 20-23, 84-86.

N

"New developments in insurance and protection of library contents," Mixer, 427-435.
New Hampshire library laws, 9, 12, 19.
New York library laws, 8.
Nonresident library fees, 67-78.
Nursing and bibliotherapy, 199-205.

O

Occupational therapy, 208; and bibliotherapy, 207-215.
Open shelves, 380.
"Operating costs of colleges and university libraries," Parker, 376-383.
"Outside funding of academic libraries," Kaser, 353-361.

P

Parker, Ralph H. Introduction to "Aspects of the financial administration of libraries," 341-342.
Parker, Ralph H. "Operating costs of college and university libraries," 376-383.
Pearson, John S. "Bibliotherapy and the clinical psychologist," 177-183.
Penal institutions, bibliotherapy in, 151-152.
"Performance standards and specifications in the library economy," Poole, 436-444.
Personality development, 159-160.
Peterborough, New Hampshire. Public Library, 9.
Photoduplication processes, see Microreproductions.
Poe, Elizabeth Holt. "Assistance from state law libraries," 315-324.
Poole, Frazer G. "Performance standards and specifications in the library economy," 436-444.
Price, Paxton P. "Budgeting and budget control in public libraries," 402-414.

Professional and nonprofessional classification, 399-400.
Psychological testing, 181-182.
Psychology, clinical, 177-178; and bibliotherapy, 177-182.
Psychotherapy, 161-166; bibliotherapy as psychotherapy, 166-174.
Public relations of libraries, 41-42, 49-50, 75-77, 360, 392.

Q

"Questionnaire on bibliotherapy," Tews, 217-228.

R

Rather, John Carson, "Library personnel costs," 395-401.
Readers' services in law libraries, 271-279.
Reading, therapeutic, see Bibliotherapy.
Reading ability, case histories, 178-180.
Reference services, in law libraries, 271-276.
Regional libraries, legal basis, 26-27.
"Responsibilities of trustees: collective and individual," Young, 39-54.
"Responsibility to the profession," Rohlf, 67-73.
Revenues, public library: 9, 41, 343-351; standards, 348-351.
Revenues, university and college libraries, 353-360; influence of outside revenue, 358-360.
Richards, James H., Jr. "Academic budgets and their administration—1962," 415-426.
Rohlf, Robert H. "Responsibility to the profession," 67-73.
"Role of the occupational therapist as related to bibliotherapy," Huntting, 207-216.

S

Salaries of librarians, 341, 370, 379, 389, 395-400.
Schochet, Lois K. "Historical background," 5-18.
School district public libraries, legal basis, 24-25; school boards as library boards, 35, 87-88.
"Service to readers," Heckel, 271-279.
Special libraries, industrial, see Industrial research libraries.
Standards and specifications for library supplies and equipment, 436-444.
Standards for library services, 364-367, 372-374.
State aid to libraries, 347-348, 350-351, 364.
State law libraries, relation with local law libraries, 315-324.
Sterilization of books, 156.
Stern, William B. "Foreign law in American law libraries," 259-270.
Subject headings, legal literature, 286-287.

T

Taxes and taxation: income tax, 343-346, 350-351; property tax, 343-346, 351; sales and excise tax, 344, 345-346; motor fuel tax, 344.
Taxing power of libraries, 21-22, 30, 32.
Tews, Ruth M. Introduction to "Bibliotherapy," 97-105.
Tews, Ruth M. "Questionnaire on bibliotherapy," 217-228.
Tuberculosis sanitaria, bibliotherapy in, 155-156.

U

Ubel, James A. "Library board forms," 28-38.
United Kingdom library laws, 82-90.
Universities and colleges, U.S. 376-377.

W

Welch, Helen M. "Cost of library materials," 384-394.
Wight, Edward A. "Financial support of public libraries," 343-352.

Y

Young, Virginia G. "Responsibilities of trustees: collective and individual," 39-54.